Janice Ruffle and Mr Yiannos Georgiades ICMACY Announcement of September 5, 2019

It is by thoughtful and reflective decision, that I Janice Ruffle ICMACY Co-Founder/Publicity Officer and ICMACY President and Legal Advisor, Mr Yiannos Georgiades, both renowned instigators of initiatives that embrace international culture, will withhold from our ICMACY active services after the successful inauguration, receiving the humble Mahesh Kale Classical Indian Vocalist and Founder of ICMA, in Cyprus.

We feel comforted in the knowledge that our work in the Foundation's progressive mission in Cyprus, by our defined professions, during the launch and inauguration has been fulfilled, allowing us to continue with our strategic focus on international diplomatic relations and duties in the journey of cultural awareness across all borders and for Mr Georgiades to further channel his energies specific to the development of his arts and production company.

"We wish ICMA and ICMACY continued success promoting the beauty and spiritual depth of Indian music and arts and look forward to working together in the future on projects, in association with our established co-operation with the High Commission of India (Cyprus)."
